

DAILY NEWS

Republic Airport sharpens skills for hurricane emergencies

As part of Republic Airport's role in Long Island's hurricane preparedness, members of the State Emergency Management Office (SEMO) — including Jason Ellis (r.), seen tracking a hurricane — take part in two-day joint emergency response exercise at Republic Terminal in Farmingdale yesterday. A SEMO Command 1 vehicle (photo r.) also was used in the exercise. Photo by Richard Slattery

